Dialogic Reading

Children get ready to read long before they start school.

Parents and Caregivers Can Help

J
a

Every time you read, talk, rhyme and sing with a child, you are providing the early language experiences that lead to reading.

YOU Are Important

- YOU know your children best
- Children learn by doing.

- Children model parents' behavior
- First five years set the stage

Early Talkers

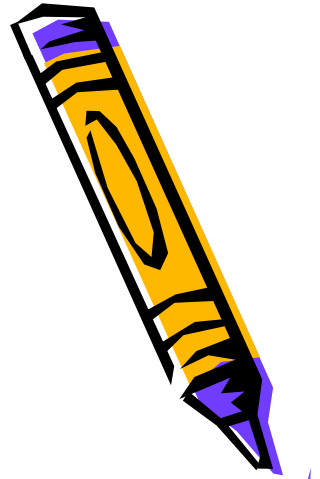

Newborns to Two-Year-Olds

Talkers

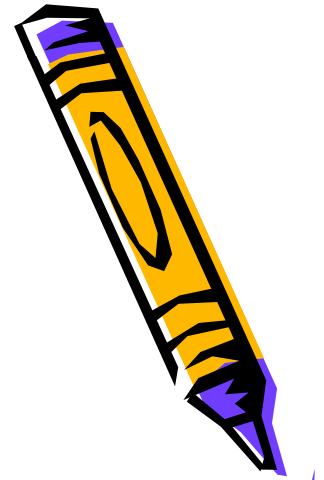

Two- and Three-Year Olds

Pre-Readers

Four- and Five-Year Olds

Early literacy is what children know about reading and writing before they can actually read or write.

Dialogic or Hear and Say Reading

Ask "What" Questions

Ask Open Ended Questions

Use general questions to encourage child to say more

- Simple what questions
- Add description
- What do you see on this page?
- What's happening here?
- What else do you see?
- Build upon the child's phrases
- Have your child repeat
- Relate to child's experiences
