Six Early Literacy Skills

Children get ready to read long before they start school.

Parents and Caregivers Can Help

J
a

Every time you read, talk, rhyme and sing with a child, you are providing the early language experiences that lead to reading.

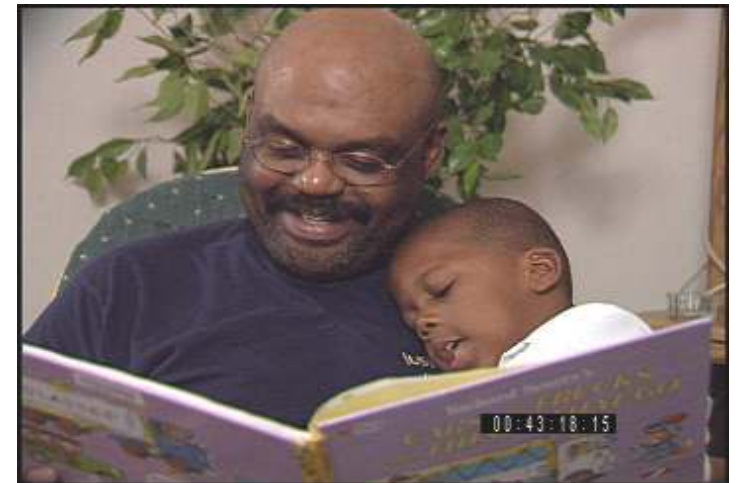

YOU Are Important

- YOU know your children best
- Children learn by doing.

- Children model parents' behavior
- First five years set the stage

Early Talkers

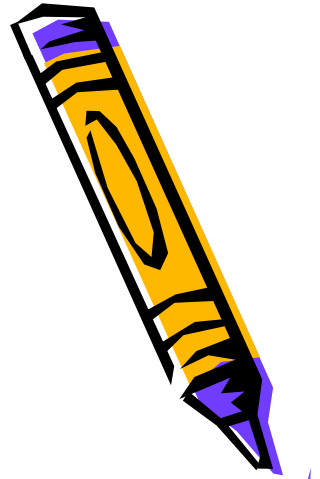

Newborns to Two-Year-Olds

Talkers

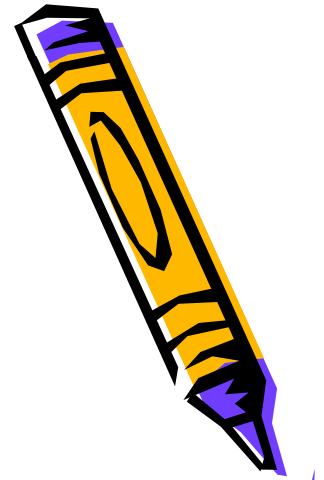

Two- and Three-Year Olds

Pre-Readers

Four- and Five-Year Olds

Early literacy is what children know about reading and writing before they can actually read or write.

Peek-a-Boo

Peekaboo! Peekaboo

(Cover your face with hands)

I see you! I see you!

(Open hands to uncover face)

I see your button nose.

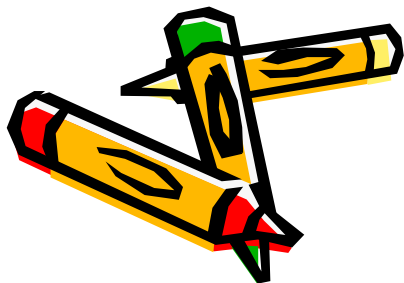

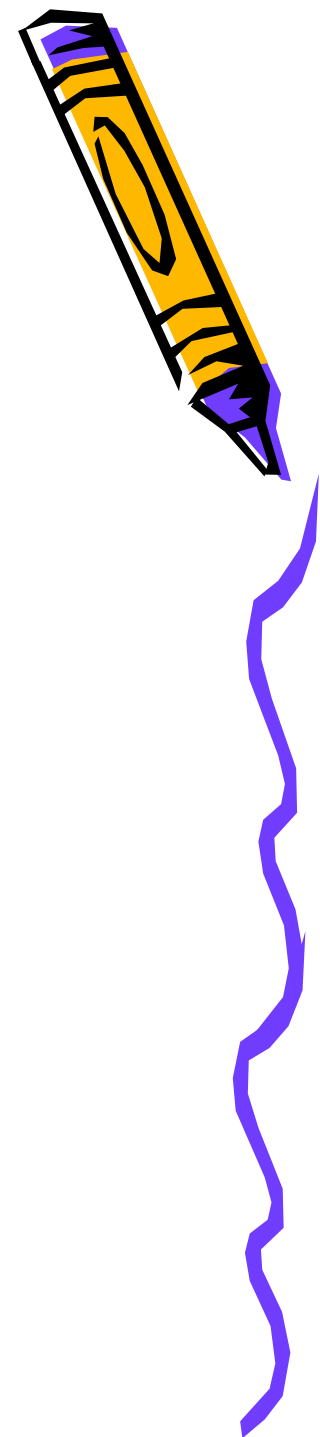

(Point to your nose or child's nose)

I see your tiny toes.

(Point to child's feet)

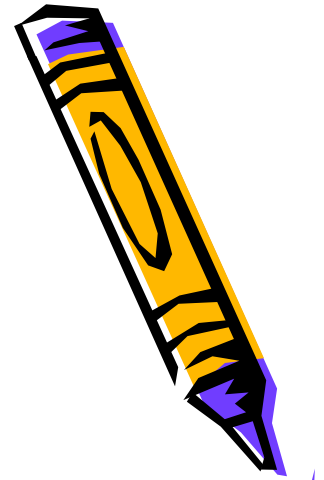

I see you! Peekaboo!

(Cover and uncover face with hands)
