LOST BOAT TITLE APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS:

Complete the reverse side of this form and return it with supporting documents and fees. If you have other circumstances, review the special instructions below or call the Marine Board for assistance.

SURVIVORSHIP means the existence of co-ownership of personal property (ORS 105.920). It may also be called joint ownership or joint tenancy.

- 1) Survivorship – YES: If the title was issued with survivorship and an owner is deceased, the surviving owner(s) may transfer the title with proof of the deceased owner's death.
- 2) Survivorship – NO: If the title was issued without survivorship and an owner is deceased, a personal representative as defined by Letters of Testamentary or an Inheritance Affidavit signed by all heirs needs to be completed to transfer title. If ownership is settled by probate, small estate or other circumstances, contact the Marine Board for further instruction.

LATE PENALTY FEES:

If the title is being transferred, the new owner has 30 days from the date of sale or release of interest signature on this form to have the application received by our office or an agent without a $25 penalty.

REGISTRATION FEES:

Any boat in use, defined as in the water, must have current registration decals. There are no retroactive fees charged for boats that have not been in use for a period of years. Boats using any kind of motor, regardless of length, must be titled and registered in Oregon. Also, sailboats 12 feet and longer must be titled and registered in Oregon. The registration fee is $3 per foot. The measure is the center length, bow to stern. Feet are rounded up. Example: 15'3" = 16' x $3 = $48
