

Sex Offender Registration Requirements

Failure to Report as a Sex Offender & Penalties

A person who is required to register as a sex offender in the State of Oregon commits the crime of failure to report if the person:

Fails to make the initial report to an authorized agency;

Fails to report when the person works at, carries on a vocation at or attends an institution of higher education;

Fails to report following a change of school enrollment or employment status, including enrollment, employment or vocation status at an institution of higher education;

Moves to a new residence and fails to report the move and the person's new address;

Fails to make an annual report;

Fails to provide complete and accurate information;

Fails to sign the sex offender registration form as required; or

Fails to submit to fingerprinting or having a photograph taken of the face, identifying scars, marks or tattoos.

PENALTIES

Failure to make an initial report is a Class C Felony.

Failure to report once each year within ten (10) days of the person's date of birth is a Class A Misdemeanor (Oregon residents).

Failure to report a change of residence (Oregon residents, including those reporting a move out-of-state), school enrollment (nonresidents), employment (nonresidents), or attendance/employment at institution of higher education (Oregon residents) is a:

- Class C Felony, if convicted of a felony crime requiring registration; OR
- Class A Misdemeanor, if convicted of a misdemeanor crime requiring registration.

Failure to provide complete and accurate reporting information is a Class A Misdemeanor.

Additional Information may be obtained from:

OregonLaws.org

<http://www.oregonlaws.org/ors/181.808>

Oregon State Police – Sex Offender Registration

<http://www.oregon.gov/osp/SOR/Pages/index.aspx>