

Oregon Veterinary Medical Examining Board
CERTIFIED VETERINARY TECHNICIAN APPLICATION

Qualifications (check one)

1. Completed the Veterinary Technology National Exam (VTNE).
2. Veterinary technician degree from an AVMA-approved veterinary technology program.
(Complete sections 1 through 5.)

How to Apply for Certification:

- 1) Complete and notarize the application form.
Attach proof of required Continuing Education (15 hours every two years).
Have an official school transcript sent to the address below.
- 2) If you took the VTNE elsewhere, have your VTNE score transferred to Oregon. Contact the American Association of Veterinary State Boards (AAVSB) at www.aavsb.org to arrange score transfer.
- 3) Arrange for license verification letters to be sent to Oregon from states where you are or ever have been licensed as a veterinary technician. Contact AAVSB or each state board individually.
- 4) All applicants must complete the Juris Prudence Exam/Regional Disease Test. This exam will be sent to you after your application has been approved. It is a multiple choice exam; a copy of the Veterinary Practice Act is provided for reference.

Fees are NOT REFUNDABLE. Make sure you meet all eligibility criteria before submitting this application and fee.

4 Continuing Education

CVT licensure in Oregon requires reporting 15 hours of CE every two years. Attach proof of completed CE with this application. The Board may waive the CE requirement in certain circumstances. If you do not have 15 hours of completed CE, you may request a waiver for good cause. For more information, including a list of approved CE, go to our website, www.oregon.gov/ovmeb, click on 'Veterinary Practice Act,' then click on 'Oregon Administrative Rules' and see 875-010-0090, Continuing Education Requirements.
