Supervision and control

(1) "Supervision and control," as used in ORS 672.002(10), means establishing the nature of, directing and guiding the preparation of, and approving the work product and accepting responsibility for the work product, as evidenced by performing the following:

(a) Spending time directly supervising the work to assure that the person working under the licensee is familiar with the significant details of the work;

(b) Providing oversight, inspection, observation and direction regarding the work being performed;

(c) Providing adequate training for persons rendering services and working on projects under the licensee;

(d) Maintaining readily accessible contact with the person providing services or performing work by direct proximity or by frequent communication about the services provided or the work performed. Communications between the licensee and persons under the licensee's supervision and control include face-to-face communications, electronic mail, and telephone communications and similar, other communications that are immediate and responsive; and

(e) Applying the licensee's seal and signature to a document.
