

Certified Water Right Examiner Study Guide and Information for Examination

The Certified Water Right Examiner (CWRE) test is given annually. Applicants will have four hours to complete the exam. This is an open book exam which consists of multiple choice, true/false questions, questions requiring the performance of calculations, and questions requiring the applicant to select items from lists.

Exam Content	Approx %
Water Right Statutes and Rules (general) ORS 537, OAR 690-020, OAR 690-217, OAR 690-300, OAR 690-310, OAR 690-315, OAR 690-320, OAR 690-330, OAR 690-340	20
Claim of Beneficial Use, maps and reports OAR 690-014	40
Water Right Transfer Statutes and Rules ORS 540, OAR 690-077, OAR 690-380, and OAR 690-385	30
Calculations of Quantities of Water	10

Study Material

The Water Resources Department has established a portion of their web site as a resource center for Water Right Examiners. The location of the resource page is:

http://www.wrd.state.or.us/OWRD/WR/cwre_info.shtml If you have additional questions, contact Gerry Clark at the Water Resources Department: 725 Summer St. NE, Ste. A, Salem, Oregon 97301; or by phone 503-986-0811.