RULE SUMMARY

Amend the 30 day required reassessment rule and the mandatory discharge rule noting that under certain circumstances and parameters there may be exceptions to the rules. Amend initiation of physical therapy rules noting that under certain circumstances or situations where a therapist is called upon to provide immediate minimal or basic treatment to a person participating in an athletic activity or event the standards for documentation are less onerous . Adopt new rule addressing standards of practice for a licensee who provides non-individualized instruction to a group of persons in the community or group of employees in a workplace.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.
