Final Order by Default Assessing Civil Penalties

(May 28, 2014)

In case #12-036NK the Board issued a Notice of Intent to Impose Discipline and Notice of Right to Hearing on April 25, 2014, based on the Board's determination that there was sufficient evidence of a preliminary finding of a violation by Respondent of OAR 801-030-0010(1)(c) Planning and Supervision. The Board's determination was based on evidence that an employee of Respondent asked a client of Respondent to sign an e-file authorization that requires the client to attest under penalty of perjury that the client has examined the return and accompanying schedules, without allowing the client an opportunity to review the return at issue. Respondent did not avail himself of the opportunity to request a hearing, and therefore a Final Order of Default imposing a $2,500 civil penalty and assessing $500.00 in Board costs was issued on May 28, 2014.

CASE #12-072NK; 13-005 and 13-006

Final Order by Default (License Revocation, Civil Penalties)

(May 7, 2014)

In cases #12-072NK, 13-005 and 13-006 the Board issued a Notice of Intent to Impose Discipline and Notice of Right to Hearing on March 3, 2014, based on the Board's determination that there was sufficient evidence of a preliminary finding of violations by Respondent of at least twenty-two (22) violations of Oregon law and administrative rules, as follows:

1. Respondent violated ORS 673.320(3), Use of the title C.P.A., when he falsely represented himself as a CPA in his email signature line after his license to practice as a CPA had lapsed. (At least 6 violations).
2. Respondent violated OAR 801-030-0010(1)(b), Due Professional Care, when Respondent represented and promised his clients, both verbally and in writing, that he would provide tax services. Because Respondent's license had lapsed, said performance would constitute multiple violations of Oregon Board of Accountancy Administrative Statutes and Rules. Respondent's clients relied on Respondent's promises and paid Respondent for his services only to learn that Respondent could not lawfully provide the services, and that his representations and promises were false. Respondent did not inform his clients that he was unable to perform this work; as a result the clients' income tax filings were not timely filed with the taxing authorities. (At least 3 violations).
3. Respondent violated OAR 801-030-0015(2)(b), Requested records, when he did not respond to client requests for their records and documents and did not return the records to them. (At least 2 violations).
4. Respondent violated OAR 801-030-0020(1), Professional misconduct, when he stopped responding to client phone calls and email messages. (At least 6 violations).
5. Respondent violated OAR 801-030-0020(7), Board communications and investigations, when he failed to respond to at least five letters from the Board in connection with its investigations. (At least 3 violations).
6. Respondent violated OAR 801-030-0020(9), Notification of change of address, when he failed to notify the Board of his change of address, as evidenced by the return of letters sent to his office address of record. (At least 2 violations).

Respondent did not avail himself of the opportunity to request a hearing, and therefore a Final Order of Default imposing License Revocation and imposing a $100,200 civil penalty and assessing $500.00 in Board costs was issued on May 7, 2014.

(February 5, 2013)

In case #12-031NK, the Board finds and Respondent admits that he did not submit a renewal application to the Board on or before his renewal period of June 30, 2011. Therefore, Respondent's license lapsed on July 1, 2011. Respondent has a history of allowing his license to lapse and then applying for reinstatement during the following tax year. Final Order by Default (Revocation, Civil Penalties, and Costs)

(April 15, 2014)

In April, 2012, case #12-031NK was opened against the Respondent based on information that he had filed tax returns for clients between July 1, 2011 and March 31, 2012, while his license was in lapsed status. After the Board made a preliminary finding of violation on May 21, 2012, the Respondent voluntarily agreed to conclude the matter by entering into a Stipulation and Order (Order) with the Board on February 7, 2013. The Order provided and Respondent agreed that his license shall be suspended, effective February 28, 2013 through February 28, 2014, and he shall not practice public accountancy or sign documents that require the signature of a CPA, shall not supervise professional staff in the practice of public accountancy, shall not use the CPA designation in any manner whatsoever, will provide the Board with the names and contact information of his clients, shall send a letter to each client advising them that his permit to practice public accountancy has been suspended, and notify his clients, in writing, that they need to engage a new accountant to carry on work in progress and prepare tax returns during the year 2013. In addition, the Respondent agreed to pay civil penalties in the sum of $10,000.

In October, 2012, case #12-062NK was opened to investigate whether the Respondent had practiced public accountancy in April and May of 2012, while his license was in lapsed status. Before this investigation was completed and the matter heard by the Board, case #13-017 was opened in April, 2013, to investigate whether the Respondent practiced public accountancy during April 2012 while he was in lapsed status and whether he violated the terms of the Order signed by the Board on February 7, 2013 by agreeing on March 7, 2013 to perform public accountancy for a client and by not advising that client that his license had been suspended.

Case #12-062NK and case #13-017 were considered together by the Board on October 21, 2013 and a determination of a preliminary finding of violation was made. A Cease and Desist Order requiring the Respondent to cease from the practice of public accountancy and from using the CPA designation was issued by the Board on December 6, 2013 and sent to the Respondent via a certified letter hand-delivered to the US Post Office that same day. Due to the Post Office failing to process the certified letter January 21, 2014, the Cease and Desist Order was re-issued in February 2014 and became effective on March 22, 2014. A single Final Order by Default (Default Order) which concluded both cases was issued by the Board on April 15, 2014 and provided for the following sanctions:

- 2.) assessed civil penalties of $90,000 as follows: $5,000 each for twelve (12) violations of ORS 673.320(3) – Use of the CPA designation when the Respondent's license was not in active status, and $5,000 each for six (6) violations of OAR 801-030-0020(1) – Professional misconduct, for failing to comply with the Stipulation and Order issued February 7, 2013 which concluded case #12-031NK.

Steers, Timothy (#4939)

Final Order by Default (Revocation, Civil Penalties, and Costs)

CASE #12-071NK

(January 29, 2014)

In 2007, case # 07-11-033 was opened against the Respondent in response to an Order issued by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) which revoked the Respondent's registration to perform audits of publicly traded companies that would be filed with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) for "intentional, knowing, and reckless conduct that resulted in a violation of applicable statutory, regulatory, or professional standards". The Board found the Respondent in violation, and case #07-11-033 was concluded with a Stipulation and Order (Order) in which the Respondent agreed not to provide audit, attest, or compilation services except in a very limited area.

A separate case, case #07-07-019, was also opened in in 2007 based on allegations that the Respondent failed to withdraw from an audit engagement at the time the client threatened litigation against the Respondent and that the payment for that audit was to be contingent upon the success of an IPO the Respondent was working on. After being found in violation by the Board, the Respondent requested a hearing on the matter. After the Order concluding case #07-11-033 was issued but before case #07-07-019 went to hearing, Respondent breached the terms of the "no audits" stipulation in case #07-11-033. The Notice issued by the Board in case #07-07-019 was amended to include the alleged breach, and the sanction was amended to include a seven (7) year suspension. The contested case hearing was held in October, 2010, and the Administrative Law Judge issued a proposed order suspending the Respondent's license for seven (7) years. The Board adopted the proposed order as the Final Order concluding case #07-07-019. This Order suspended the Respondent's license for seven (7) years from February 18, 2011 to February 18, 2018 and required Respondent to pay investigation and hearing costs of $15,161.47.

In November, 2012, the Board obtained a tax return signed "Timothy Steers, CPA" and dated August 20, 2012. Case #12-071 was opened to investigate if the Respondent has violated the terms of the Final Order in case #07-07-019.
