Fiscal and Economic Impact:

No fiscal or economic impact is anticipated as a result of the proposed amendments. The newly enacted law that the proposed rules would implement are in current statutes and fiscal or economic impact, if any, would result from those laws.

Statement of Cost of Compliance:

1. Impact on state agencies, units of local government and the public (ORS 183.335(2)(b)(E)):
No fiscal or economic impact is anticipated from the proposed rule amendments.

2. Cost of compliance effect on small business (ORS 183.336):

- a. Estimate the number of small businesses and types of business and industries with small businesses subject to the rule: Oregon discrimination laws apply to all businesses. The Employment Department estimates there are 107,103 small businesses in Oregon.. However, there is no anticipated cost of compliance.

- b. Projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative activities required for compliance, including costs of professional services:

No additional equipment, supplies, labor, or increased administration are required or anticipated under the proposed rules.

- c. Equipment, supplies, labor and increased administration required for compliance:

No additional equipment, supplies, labor, or increased administration are required or anticipated under the proposed rules.

- d. How were small businesses involved in the development of this rule?

Small business representatives are represented on BOLI's stakeholder mailing list.

Administrative Rule Advisory Committee consulted?: No.

If not, why?: The proposed rule amendments would implement statutory protections which BOLI has no discretion not to enforce or to change.
