RULE SUMMARY

The proposed amendments would update the figures used to calculate costs of staff time spent on providing requested public records in order to reimburse the bureau for the actual costs of responding to a request for public records as provided by the public records laws. The proposed amendments would remove references to outdated media used to store and convey public records. The proposed amendments would make clarifying changes and clean up grammar and typographical errors.

A public rulemaking hearing may be requested in writing by 10 or more people, or by an association with 10 or more members, within 21 days following the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Oregon Bulletin or 28 days from the date Notice was sent to people on the agency mailing list, whichever is later. If sufficient hearing requests are received, the notice of the date and time of the rulemaking hearing must be published in the Oregon Bulletin at least 14 days before the hearing. The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.
