Washington County Grandparents Raising Grandchildren
2012 Presentation Series:
Helping Grandchildren Build Strength & Resiliency
Sponsored by the Family Caregiver Support Program of WCDAVS

Addressing topics of interest for grandparents and relatives who are raising or helping to raise their grandchildren/relatives
Choose one topic or attend them all.
Call 503-846-3089 to register for this free series.

May 15
Planning for the Future: What Happens to Them if Something Happens to Me?
Kirsten Stensland, J.D., Law for Generations
An elder law attorney discusses tools and approaches you might consider when planning how to provide for your grandchildren in your absence
Standard Appliance Conference Room * 3600 SW Hall Blvd * Beaverton, 97005
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

September 12
Bullying and Aggressive Behavior among School-aged Youth
Darleen Schnoor, Washington Co. Crime Prevention
Learn about the types of aggression that constitute bullying; the scourge of cyber-bullying; reasons kids bully and warning signs; prevention strategies and solutions
Tigard Senior Center * 8815 SW O’Marra * Tigard, 97223
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Acoso Ofensivo y el Comportamiento Agresivo entre Ninos de Edad de Escuela
Lorenzo Rubio, Washington Co. Crime Prevention
Centro Cultural * 1110 N. Adair St. * Cornelius, 97113
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

December 6
Supporting Grieving Children During the Holidays
Kathleen Macdonald, M.A., the Dougy Center for Grieving Children & Families
The holidays are especially difficult for children who are or have experienced losses of a parent, home, sibling, or friend, etc. This presentation will address the needs of grieving children and teens and ways to support them during the holiday season.
Tuality Health Education Center * 334 SE 8th Avenue * Hillsboro, 97123
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.