COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE STATE OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES
OFFICE OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES AND THE KLAMATH TRIBES

This Cooperative Agreement (Agreement) between the State of Oregon Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VR) and the Klamath Tribes was developed jointly. VR recognizes and acknowledges that the Klamath Tribal Government holds a unique status in the United States of America with the rights and benefits of a sovereign nation. VR has developed this Agreement to affirm the Agency understands and supports the pursuit of a government-to-government relationship with the Klamath Tribes’ Vocational Rehabilitation Program (KTVRP), consistent with ORS 182.162-168. This Agreement is intended to be flexible and dynamic to provide for the evolution of the partnership between VR and the Klamath Tribes.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, this document is available in alternate formats such as Braille, large print, audiotape, oral presentation, and electronic format. III. PURPOSE

The Agreement is implemented for: 1) the purpose of enhancing, to the greatest extent possible, the ability to provide efficient and effective vocational rehabilitation services to eligible enrolled Klamath Tribal Members residing within the service delivery area boundaries of Klamath County; 2) to facilitate cultural awareness and improve professional skills among VR staff; and 3) to establish the working relationship between the Klamath Tribes and VR in the implementation of KTVRP services.

IV. TERM

This Agreement shall become effective on October 1, 2013, or on the date at which every party has signed this Agreement. This agreement shall terminate on September 30, 2015, unless otherwise extended or terminated prior to that date.
V. GENERAL TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

A. Both parties agree that:

1. The Klamath Tribes is a federally recognized Indian Tribe. The Klamath Reservation was established by treaty on October 14, 1864, 16 Stats. 707. The Klamath Tribes were subjected to the federal termination policy in 1954, 25 U.S.C. § 564-564w, but were restored to federal recognition in 1986, 25 U.S.C. § 556 – 556g.

2. The individual(s) signing this Agreement on behalf of the Klamath Tribes and KTVRP certify that they have been granted the authority to act on behalf of the Klamath Tribes by the Klamath Tribes' Governing Body.

3. The individuals signing this agreement on behalf of VR certify that they have been granted the authority to act on behalf of VR and the State of Oregon by the Appropriate State governing body.

4. Any Individuals for whom VR does not have primary responsibility under this Agreement may still choose to seek services from VR instead of the Klamath Tribes.

5. VR and the Klamath Tribes may provide concurrent services for vocational rehabilitation to any individual whose primary residence is within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area, and who is deemed eligible for both programs. When VR and the KTVRP concurrently provide vocational rehabilitation services, each agency's case file shall contain the IPE of both the KTVRP and VR Program. Provision of concurrent services shall be based upon evidence that substantial non-duplicated service(s) from both agencies are necessary to achieve a successful outcome.

6. When VR and the Klamath Tribes provide concurrent services for vocational rehabilitation, in accordance with paragraph 5 above:

   a) VR and the Klamath Tribes will make independent determinations of eligibility for their respective vocational rehabilitation programs.

   b) Concurrent IPEs shall be cooperatively developed and recorded with each agency. IPE amendments may be made by either agency so long as it is shared and does not duplicate the services being provided by the other agency.

   c) In developing an IPE for an enrolled Klamath Tribal Member, the counselor(s) of record may consider cultural issues based on information provided by persons who are recognized by the Klamath Tribes as knowledgeable in Tribal customs of the Klamath Tribes.

   d) The counselors of record for both VR and the Klamath Tribes will confer on a regular basis to review each case for the purpose of ensuring that IPE goals are being met and services are being coordinated to the benefit of the client.
e) When a service/action is being performed by one counselor of record, that counselor will ensure that the other counselor of record is notified in a timely manner.

f) VR and the Klamath Tribes will offer courtesy case supervision within the scope of the Rehabilitation Act and this Agreement, upon request as needed, when VR/KTVRP eligible and enrolled Klamath Tribal Member clients relocate on or off the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area, to accomplish the objective of their IPE. The counselor providing courtesy supervision has no authority to change authorized services, or the client’s Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE) as developed by the Primary Counselor.

7. The VR and the KTVRP will adopt and implement measures which ensure that confidential data are maintained in accordance with 34 CFR 361.38: protection, use and release of personal information. VR and the KTVRP will share information as necessary to prevent duplication of services, and staff of VR and the KTVRP will inform clients that information is shared on a routine basis for this purpose.

8. Encourage and make possible the participation of VR staff in training regarding American Indian culture that will enhance VR’s ability to provide culturally relevant services to American Indians.

9. Encourage and make possible the participation of the Klamath Tribes’ staff in training regarding vocational rehabilitation topics.

B. The KTVRP agrees to:

1. Consult with VR on the State Plan and on the development of new State policies and procedures.

2. Refer to the VR those persons who live within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area, are not enrolled Klamath Tribal Members, and desire vocational rehabilitation services.

3. Refer to the VR enrolled Klamath Tribal Members who claim to have disabilities, and who live within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area, who wish to receive services from VR rather than the KTVRP or who wish to received concurrent services from VR and the KTVRP.

4. Refer to the State Vocational Rehabilitation agencies American Indians who claim to have disabilities and who are living near the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area, as they become known to KTVRP.

5. Assume primary responsibility for the case management for eligible KTVRP clients residing within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area.

C. VR agrees to:

1. Consult with the Klamath Tribes regarding the Tribes’ Section 121 Funds reapplication to the United States Department of Education, Rehabilitation Services Administration for continued funding.
2. Cooperate in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services to all eligible American Indians and live within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area.

3. Inform all enrolled Klamath Tribal Members that live within the Klamath Tribes Service Delivery Area of the services available from KTVRP and offer to refer them to that program.

4. If the Klamath Tribes' federal funding is discontinued under Section 121, VR will continue the KTVRP clients' IPEs for all such clients who meet the VR eligibility criteria in effect at the time KTVRP's funding was discontinued, and to the extent such IPES are consistent with VR policies in effect at that time.

5. Provide KTVRP staff and managers’ access to VR-sponsored training events and training materials, manuals, and other resources to assist KTVRP staff to effectively and efficiently provide Vocational Rehabilitation services to enrolled Klamath Tribal Members.

VI. GENERAL TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

A. Termination: This Agreement may be terminated by mutual consent of both parties, or by either party upon 60 days' notice in writing.

B. Annual: Directors of KTVRP and VR Administrator will meet annually to review this Agreement and consider amendments.

C. Consideration: There is no monetary consideration under this agreement. However, the parties acknowledge the exchange and receipt of other valuable consideration in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation to the benefit of all by collaborating and coordinating the provision of vocational rehabilitation services to American Indians who are individuals with disabilities. No travel or other expenses are authorized.

D. No Third Party Beneficiaries: The OQRS and the Klamath Tribes are the only parties to this Agreement and are the only parties entitled to enforce its terms. Nothing in this Agreement gives, is intended to give, or shall be construed to give or provide any benefit or right, whether directly or indirectly or otherwise, to third persons unless such third persons are individually identified by name herein and expressly described as intended beneficiaries of the terms of the Agreement.

E. State Tort Claims Act: The Klamath Tribes, its members, employees, and agents are not officers, employees, or agents of the State as those terms are used in ORS 30.265. No VR employees, agents, or officers are the employees, agents or officers of the Klamath Tribes.

Indemnity: To the extent provided under the Constitution and laws of the Klamath Tribes, the Klamath Tribes shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the State of Oregon and its Department of Human Services, its officers, agents, and employees, from all claims, suits or actions of any nature arising out of the activities of the Klamath Tribes, its officers, subcontractors, agents or employees under this Agreement. The Klamath Tribes shall not be required to indemnify or defend the State of Oregon for any liability arising out of the wrongful act of officers, employees, or agents of the State of Oregon.

MOU: OR/KT VR
To the extent permitted by Article XI, Section of the Oregon Constitution and by the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 to 30.300, the State shall indemnify the Klamath Tribes, its officers, divisions and employees against any liability for damage to life or property that may arise from the implementation of this Cooperative Agreement to the extent of liability arising out of the negligence of the State. The State shall not be required to indemnify or defend the Klamath Tribes for any liability arising out of the wrongful act of officers, employees or agents of the Klamath Tribes.

G. Severability: The parties agree that if any term or provision of this Agreement is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or in conflict with any law, the validity of the remaining terms and provisions shall not be affected, and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed and enforced as if the Agreement did not contain the particular term or provision held to be invalid.
