DOC announces superintendent changes

Colette S. Peters, Director of the Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC), recently announced four changes to the Operations Division management team, effective September 15.

Named were Brad Cain as Superintendent of Snake River Correctional Institution (SRCI) in Ontario, Brandon Kelly as Superintendent of Oregon State Penitentiary (OSP) in Salem, Brigitte Amsberry as Acting Superintendent of Two Rivers Correctional Institution (TRCI), and Kimberly Hendricks as Superintendent of Santiam Correctional Institution (SCI) in Salem.

Powder River Correctional Facility (PRCF) Superintendent Brad Cain will become the new Superintendent of SRCI. Brad began his DOC career in 1990 as a Correctional Officer at Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution. He promoted through the security series, working at Oregon State Correctional Institution (OSCI), Santiam Correctional Institution (SCI), and SRCI. He served more than five years as the Institution Security Manager at SRCI before accepting the Minimum Facility Manager position, which he held for two years. Brad served as Operations Manager at PRCF before being named Superintendent there in 2013. He received an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice in 1990 from Treasure Valley Community College.

SCI Superintendent Brandon Kelly will be the new Superintendent of OSP and Mill Creek Correctional Facility (MCCF). Brandon has 18 years of experience in corrections, having started his career in 1998 as a Correctional Officer at Oregon State Penitentiary (OSP) after serving six years with the United States Marine Corps. He promoted through the ranks: Sergeant in 2002, Lieutenant in 2003, Captain in 2004, Institution Security Manager at OSCI in 2009, Assistant Superintendent at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility (CCCF) in 2011, and Assistant Superintendent of Security at OSP in 2013 prior to being named Superintendent of SCI in June 2015.

The mission of the Oregon Department of Corrections is to promote public safety by holding offenders accountable for their actions and reducing the risk of future criminal behavior.

Brigitte Amsberry, EOCl Assistant Superintendent of Security, has accepted a one-year job rotation as TRCI Superintendent. Brigitte started as a Registered Nurse in 2000 at EOCl. She promoted to Nurse Manager in 2005, Correctional Rehabilitation Manager in 2006, and Assistant Superintendent of Correctional Rehabilitation in 2007. Brigitte served as interim Superintendent at EOCl in 2013, returning to Assistant Superintendent in 2014, and stepping into her current role of Assistant Superintendent of Security at EOCl in July of this year.

Shutter Creek Correctional Institution Superintendent Kimberly Hendricks will move back to the valley as the new SCI Superintendent. Kimberly joined the department in 2001 as part of the start-up team at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility in the role of Safety Manager. In 2005, Kimberly transferred to Central Office to assist in the implementation of the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) draft standards. Kimberly received her Certificate in Public Management (CPM) from Willamette University in 2008. In 2009, she became the Hearings Administrator for the Office of the Inspector General. She has served as SCCI Superintendent since 2014.

DOC employs 4,500 staff members at 14 institutions, two community corrections offices, and several centralized support facilities throughout the state. The agency is responsible for the care and custody of over 14,500 adults sentenced to more than 12 months of incarceration, and direct or indirect supervision of 32,000 offenders on felony supervision in the community. DOC is recognized nationally among correctional agencies for providing adults in custody with the cognitive, education, and job skills needed to become productive citizens when they transition back to their communities.
