

Emil Gustafson
Portland Fire and Rescue
Date of Death: March 16, 1916

Gustafson died as a result of 10,000 volt shock of electricity while working on a pole at 26th and Nicolai. He was working on a fire alarm telegraph wire when his body touched a Northwestern Electric Company wire.

