INSTRUCTIONS

This form is available, but not recommended, for use as a training record for an individual officer. Training reported on an F-15 will be entered as a single line item indicating a total number of hours per year.

F-15 logs will be accepted to:

   a. Report training that occurred three or more years prior to the current year if no F-6 Attendance Roster was completed at the time. This training will be entered into the individual’s record as “Approved In-State Training.”
   b. Report training taken while employed in a jurisdiction outside of Oregon. This training will be entered into the individual’s record as Approved Out-of-State Training as soon as the log can be processed.

Only course information submitted on an F-6, Attendance Roster, will be listed by course title and hours on the officer’s training record.

Agency Head or Authorized Representative must sign prior to submission to DPSST.
