SECTION 2. PROGRAM AND POSITION INFORMATION

a. Describe the program in which this position exists. Include program purpose, who's affected, size, and scope. Include relationship to agency mission.

The Oregon Department of Energy's vision is to lead Oregon to a safe, equitable, clean, and sustainable future. ODOE helps Oregonians make informed decisions and maintain a resilient and affordable energy system. We advance solutions to shape an equitable clean energy transition, protect the environment and public health, and responsibly balance energy needs and impacts for current and future generations. ODOE helps Oregonians improve the energy efficiency of their homes, provides policy expertise to prepare for Oregon's future energy needs, staffs the Energy Facility Siting Council, provides technical and financial assistance to encourage investments in energy efficiency and renewable energy resources, represents Oregon's interests in the cleanup of the Hanford nuclear site, and ensures state preparedness to respond to energy related emergencies. ODOE employs approximately 123 employees and is funded with revenue from more than 30 sources, including $55.6 million in general fund, $108.3 million in other funds, $9.3 million in federal funds, $1.4 million in lottery funds debt service, and $29.4 million in non-limited loan program and debt service funds.

The Energy Facility Siting Division works with energy facility developers, companies operating energy facilities, local jurisdictions, other state agencies, tribal governments, and other stakeholders across Oregon to meet the State's energy infrastructure and demand needs. The Division's work ensures that large energy facilities, transmission lines, and natural gas pipelines proposed or built in Oregon meet state siting standards. The development of new technologies and investments in renewable energy generation has led to growth in energy siting and made this work a high priority for the Department.

b. Describe the primary purpose of this position, and how it functions within this program. Complete this statement. The primary purpose of this position is to:

Develop and implement plans to determine compliance with final orders and site certificate conditions during pre-construction, construction, operation, and decommissioning stages of energy facilities; and to conduct field inspections to verify adherence to final orders and site certificate conditions. The position also provides research and review of technical, regulatory, and legal issues for the siting of energy facilities and coordinates interagency comments on such reviews.

SECTION 3. DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES

List the major duties of the position. State the percentage of time for each duty. Mark “N” for new duties, “R” for revised duties or “NC” for no change in duties. Indicate whether the duty is an “Essential” (E) or “Non-Essential” (NE) function.

SECTION 4. WORKING CONDITIONS

Describe any on-going working conditions. Include any physical, sensory, and environmental demands. State the frequency of exposure to these conditions.

Office environment is an open landscape with cubicles and audible distractions. Requires long periods of sitting, standing, using a keyboard for word processing, and the use of a telephone. Work requires lifting and carrying objects of up to 50 pounds, bending, crouching, use of arms above the shoulders, and transporting oneself throughout the office and to remote work locations. Work environment includes use of electronic audio/visual/computer hardware equipment. These working conditions are experienced daily. Employee must be able to complete work tasks under these types of conditions in this type of environment. Must be available to work a regular 40 hour, Monday through Friday work schedule. May include exposure to volatile or stressful situations and critical/hostile people.

Facility site inspections occur in both indoor and outdoor industrial energy facilities throughout the state during pre-construction, construction, operation, and decommissioning. May include exposure to heat, cold, wind, dust, bright lights, vibrations, loud noise and construction and industrial related odors. Use of personal protective equipment is often required. Facility site inspections occur as needed which could include several in a 30-day period. Facility site inspections often require overnight stays and workdays exceeding 8 hours.

SECTION 5. GUIDELINES

a. List any established guidelines used in this position, such as state or federal laws or regulations, policies, manuals, or desk procedures.

- o Oregon Revised Statutes – Chapter 469 – Energy; Conservation Programs; Energy Facilities
- o Oregon Administrative Rules – Chapter 345 – Oregon Energy Facility Siting Council
- o Siting and Regulation work plans
- o Compliance specific procedures and protocols
- o Oregon Attorney General's Uniform and Model Rules of Procedure

b. How are these guidelines used?

Statutes and Administrative Rules provide the basis for reviewing permitted energy facilities in Oregon for compliance.

SECTION 6. WORK CONTACTS

With whom, outside of co-workers in this work unit, must the employee in this position regularly come in contact?

SECTION 7. POSITION RELATED DECISION MAKING

Describe the typical decisions of this position. Explain the direct effect of these decisions.

The employee helps coordinate the development and implementation of an effective compliance program for EFSC certified facilities that includes review of annual reports, compliance inspections, and recommends corrective or enforcement action when required. Failure to follow through with certificate conditions could result in project actions counter to Oregon's environmental, public health and safety, and siting standards.

The employee participates in implementing the department's support role for the Energy Facility Siting Council as described in statute (ORS 469.300 et seq) and rule (OAR 345 Division 1 to 29) by ensuring compliance with EFSC site certificate conditions.

The employee establishes timelines and determines when input from applicable state agencies and local governments is needed to ensure compliance with certificate conditions.

The employee reviews invoices from other state agencies, local governments, and support contractors to determine appropriateness of services and makes recommendations to manager about payment of services.

The employee determines the relative importance and impact on Oregon of emerging compliance issues and advises management on a recommended course of action. Thorough analysis and early identification of key issues helps ensure that energy projects sited in Oregon are consistent with Oregon's energy siting standards.

For each key issue with a potential to impact Oregon's energy resources or its citizens, the employee must determine the available options and recommend which options will best balance Oregon's need to protect human health and the environment while ensuring a continuing and reliable energy supply. This position works under the general supervision of an administrative superior who provides leadership and policy direction.
