

BEFORE THE
BOARD OF NATUROPATHIC EXAMINERS
STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of:

ROBERT RUIZ,
Applicant.

Case no. N09-01-03A

FINAL ORDER AND CONSENT ORDER

The Board of Naturopathic Examiners (Board) is the state agency responsible for licensing, regulating the practice of naturopathic medicine in the State of Oregon.

The Board conducted a background check of Robert Ruiz (Applicant). The background check revealed that Applicant violated ORS 685.110(15), and OAR 850-050-0190(3).

Applicant agrees the Board can enter a final order imposing probation and issue his license, and he waives any right to hearing or further appeal of the final order.

This Order is the final resolution of this matter, including the right to any hearing, appeal, or judicial review.

PROBATION

The Board issues the following final order:

Board will issue Applicant a license to practice as a naturopathic physician with PROBATION for five years from the effective date of this Order. After completing three years of the PROBATION, Applicant may request the Board reduce the PROBATION. The Board may reduce PROBATION to a length of less than five years, but not less than three years.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 25th day of September 2009.
