What is Multi-aged Forest Mgmt.?

- Creates forests of 3 or more age classes—young to old trees.
- Mimics in many ways how ponderosa pine forests developed in Central OR.
- Allows for periodic harvests of small, medium, and large diameter trees.
- Previously practiced by Bill Steers, former timberlands manager for Gilchrist.

Four entries over 30+ years—Gilchrist Timberlands 1990