

USDOJ October 15, 2014 Report

Screening Brief Intervention Referral to Treatment and Depression Screening Data

9. Percent of individuals seen by physical health care provider who received an SBIRT (screening brief intervention referral to treatment).

The percent of individuals seen by a physical health care provider who received an SBIRT (screening brief intervention referral to treatment) was 2% for 2013.

10. Percent of individuals seen by physical health care provider who were screened for depression.

OHA is currently unable to collect this data. A process engaging CCOs to create a methodology for the collection of this metric has been put in place..