What we'll talk about ...

Housing markets are getting tighter, affordable places to rent are becoming more rare, and people are spending more and more of their monthly income on rent. Too many members of our communities are experiencing homelessness.

Join Oregon Housing and Community Services (OHCS), Oregon Coast Community Action (ORCCA), and North Bend City / Coos-Curry, Housing Authorities for a discussion about housing priorities for your community over the next five years.

We welcome you to join us for a panel discussion on affordable housing moderated by Michael Lehman, Executive Director of Oregon Coast Community Action. Discussion will include the impact of the high cost of housing for working families, support for youth experiencing homelessness and housing insecurity and strategy's to help people move out of poverty. Panelists include: Mark McKelvey, Maslow Project of Coos County, and Mark Low, Commissioner with the Coos Curry Housing Authority.

OHCS is seeking to be more strategic and data driven with our investments. We need your help to shape the priorities of Oregon's housing plan, and we want to hear your stories! Come share your experience and inform our work.
