81 percent of Oregon City businesses pass OLCC and Oregon City minor sales check

Oregon City, OR – Forty four out of 54 Oregon City businesses passed a check for alcohol sales to minors Dec. 3 and 4. The minor sales check was performed by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission and Oregon City Police Department. The 81 percent compliance rate was consistent with the 2008 statewide average of 78 percent.

“Studies show that teens are drinking at younger ages – beginning in the eighth grade,” said Carl Lewis, Regional Enforcement Manager. “We’re happy that 44 of these businesses were doing their part to keep alcohol out of the hands of kids.”

The commission performs the minor sales checks in an effort to reduce drinking by minors, which is a serious problem throughout the state. The OLCC tests about 1,800 licensed liquor businesses each year. Licensees or their employees can be held liable for alcohol-related damages and injuries if they serve or sell alcohol to a minor.

Under Oregon law, businesses in cities with a population of 20,000 or more have an equal chance of being randomly selected for a minor decoy compliance check. A business can also be selected for a compliance check if there is a documented complaint of sales to minors. Businesses in cities with a population under 20,000 and unincorporated areas in counties are not subject to these selection requirements.

The OLCC offers a free training course on how to check ID's. Participants learn how to identify false identification and the laws regarding minors and alcohol. Additional training opportunities are available including classes for store clerks and service permit holders. Interested persons can call the local OLCC office to schedule a training session. (Samples of OR Driver Licenses for minor and adult attached)

During the sales checks, a minor volunteer attempts to purchase alcohol from a licensed business to see if staff are checking ID's correctly and refusing to sell alcohol to anyone under 21. Commission inspectors or other law enforcement officers supervise the minor volunteers. The volunteers carry their own legal ID that identifies them as under 21 and do not disguise their age or lie to encourage the sale of alcohol.
