OLCC to Hold Recreational Marijuana License Workshops

Will Provide Overview of Temporary Rules, License Application Process

Portland, Oregon – The Oregon Liquor Control Commission has announced a series of workshops to be held in December to provide information about the OLCC Recreational Marijuana License program. The workshops are scheduled around the state, and will include a review of the Temporary Rules regulating the Recreational Marijuana industry, an overview of the license application process, and a question and answer session.

The OLCC will start accepting license applications on January 4, 2016. Applicants will be able to utilize a dedicated website to apply for business licenses, interact with OLCC staff, and pay fees electronically. The OLCC will license producers, processors, wholesalers, retailers, labs and research (certificates.)

The seven workshops will be held in areas of the state where local government has not adopted ordinances prohibiting establishment of recreational marijuana licenses. Registration is not required.
