

Processor FAQs

I am a processor, can I process for OMMP and OLCC in the same building?

No. The Oregon Health Authority (OHA) regulates medical marijuana system and the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC) regulates the recreational marijuana system. Medical and recreational marijuana businesses cannot share the same physical address.

If you want to sell medical grade cannabinoid products to an OLCC licensed retailer for sale to an OMMP cardholder, you must register with the OLCC to produce medical grade cannabinoid products.

If I'm an OHA processor and I'm transitioning to become an OLCC processor can I transfer inventory to my OLCC processor license that was received after October 1st?

Yes. A processor may transfer its existing inventory, but that inventory must be tested by an OLCC licensed lab and be packaged and labeled to meet new standards.

The October 1st date refers to OHA dispensaries transitioning to the OLCC program. This date does not apply to processors.

What does Medical Grade mean?

OLCC licensed processors may make products that meet the concentration limits for use by patients in the medical system.

These products need to include the medical grade symbol on the product's principal display panel. This symbol will be provided during the packaging and labeling preapproval process.

OLCC licensed retail stores can sell medical grade product to OMMP cardholders tax free, if the retailer registers with the OLCC to sell recreational marijuana for medical purposes.

I am an OLCC licensed processor. Who can I receive marijuana from?

You can only receive product from other OLCC licensees that have a Metrc account; all transfers between licensees must be done using a Metrc transfer manifest.

You can no longer receive product from anyone or any business operating in the medical system.

There is a list on the OLCC website to help you find other licensees.

If I am an OLCC licensed processor who can I sell marijuana products to?

You can only send product to facilities that have a Metrc account; all transfers between licensees have to be done using a Metrc transfer manifest.

You can no longer transfer or sell product to the medical system.

There is a list on the OLCC website to help you find other licensees.

As an OLCC processor what testing, packaging and labeling rules do I need to follow?

- Product needs to be tested by an ORELAP certified and OLCC licensed lab
- Packages must be approved by the OLCC
- Labels must be approved by the OLCC or be a generic label that is compliant with the labeling rules (OAR 333-007-0010 through 333-007-0100)
- Must meet the recreational concentration limits established under 333-007-0210 or for medical grade 333-007-0220.

How does the one time inventory transfer for a processor work?

- To be eligible for the one time transfer you must be listed as a processor on the OMMP website
- The business to be licensed by the OLCC must be the same location as the medical marijuana processing site from which the inventory is to be transferred.
- Must meet the recreational concentration limits established under 333-007-0210 or for medical grade 333-007-0220.
