

Marijuana Worker Permit FAQs

I took the on-line test for my workers permit, is there anything else I need to do?

Yes. Taking the on-line test is just the first step.

To complete the process you need to apply for your permit online at the OLCC website.

This is what a valid worker permit looks like:

How will I know when I can pay for my worker permit?

The OLCC will contact you when your application has been processed and let you know it is time to pay.

Do I need a workers permit to work in the medical marijuana system?

No. Worker permits are only required for employees of businesses licensed by the OLCC. However, some medical marijuana businesses may ask you to get a workers permit.

Do I need a worker permit before October 1st?

No. Currently there is no deadline for obtaining a workers permit, however you need to have a worker permit if you are operating or working for an OLCC licensed marijuana business. If you plan on working or are currently working for an OLCC licensee you need to take your test and apply for a permit as soon as possible.
