

Fifty years - it is still the law

The National Historic Preservation Act of 1966

- ❖ The key Federal law that protects and preserves archaeological and historic sites
- ❖ Requires Federal agencies to consider the effect of their actions on sites
- ❖ Actions are “...a project, activity, or program funded in whole or in part under the direct or indirect jurisdiction of a Federal agency, including:
 - Those carried out by or on behalf of the Federal agency;
 - Those carried out with Federal financial assistance; and
 - Those requiring a Federal permit, license, or approval” 36 CFR § 800
