

Vegetation Cover Groups/Habitat Types

Cape Lookout State Park

August 2011

Nature
History
Discovery

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1, Brackish marsh | 18, Mid-aged hemlock-alder forest |
| 2, Developed/ mid-aged to mature mixed conifer and alder forest | 19, Mid-aged mixed conifer and alder forest |
| 3, Dunal grassland | 20, Mid-aged mixed conifer forest |
| 4, Emergent marsh | 21, Mid-aged spruce-alder forest |
| 5, Late-seral mixed conifer forest | 22, Mid-aged spruce-douglas fir forest |
| 6, Late-seral spruce forest | 22, Mid-aged spruce-shore pine forest |
| 7, Late-seral spruce forest with coastal headland shrubland and grassland openings | 23, Mid-aged spruce forest |
| 8, Late-seral to mature mixed conifer forest | 24, Netarts spit |
| 9, Mature alder forest | 25, Non-vegetated |
| 10, Mature alder forest with some emerging young to mid-aged mixed conifers | 26, Shrub-scrub wetland |
| 11, Mature mixed conifer and alder forest | 27, Sparse beach vegetation |
| 12, Mature mixed conifer forest | 28, Uneven aged mixed conifer and alder forest |
| 13, Mature spruce-alder forest | 29, Uneven aged spruce-alder forest/shrubland |
| 14, Mature spruce forest | 30, Young alder forest |
| 15, Mesic shrubland | 31, Young mixed conifer and alder forest |
| 16, Mid-aged alder forest | 32, Young spruce-alder forest |
| 17, Mid-aged cedar-alder forest | 33, Disturbed |

Note: This product was produced for conceptual planning purposes. It was not prepared for, and may not be suitable for, legal, engineering or surveying purposes. Users of this information should review the primary data sources to ascertain the usability of the information.