Rule advisory committee holds second meeting to discuss proposed changes to local government grant rules

SALEM, Oregon – Oregon Parks and Recreation Department (OPRD) has formed a rule advisory committee to review proposed changes to Oregon administrative rules for the Local Government Grant program within the department.

The committee will meet virtually Friday, Sept. 2 to continue reviewing and discussing proposed changes to program rules. The 10 a.m. meeting is open to the public and can be viewed at <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UckqL6iVPBrfCTO27cNmCTwg>.

The meeting agenda will include discussions on proposed changes to align community needs and program operations. The committee will also discuss any economic and fiscal impact of the proposed rules. This is the second meeting of the committee.

Committee members, appointed by OPRD, include individuals from park and recreation districts, local governments, grant committees and partner organizations.

After the committee review, the rule will be open for public comment this fall. More information about this rulemaking is available on the OPRD website:
