

Rulemaking: Updating National Register document requirements

Public comments received
March 1 through 4, 2022

Submit a public comment on a rule

Oregon Parks and Recreation Department

Proposed rule change:

Updating National Register document requirements

Commenter name (if provided):

Sandra Shotwell

Commenter email (if provided):

sandra.shotwell@gmail.com

Public comment:

Hello, I appreciate that the State of Oregon is coming into alignment with the National Park Service guidance that objections to a historic district application do not have to be notarized.

What will the new rule say about objections from the past that were submitted in good faith but rejected for lack of full, complete and proper notarization? Will they be counted?

Thank you,

Sandra Shotwell

Date comment received:

Thursday, March 3, 2022