FIRE SERVICE AND PUBLIC ARE INVITED

Ideas for your community to honor local fire service:

- Community groups, churches or other organizations - host a breakfast, lunch, or dinner.
- Civic groups - present certificates of thanks to their local department.
- Civic organizations - offer to take food to the fire department or arrange to cook a meal in the firehouse.
- Schools - hold essay contests about why we should recognize our firefighters.
- School students - write letters or notes of thanks to their local fire department.
- Schools - invite the fire department to give a fire safety presentation.
- School bands or other local groups - offer a free concert.
- Local merchants and restaurants - offer special coupons to fire service members.
- Local theatre groups - offer a free performance to fire service members.

Remember - firefighters love cookies!

Please note: Oregon law prohibits public officials from accepting gifts valued at more than $50.
