Minutes for the April TTAC meeting in Redmond were approved.

2010 Conference Review ~ Jamie Kometz, OSFM

Input from committee members: no lunchtime speakers; relocating next year's conference to Bend, Eagle Crest, or Sunriver; pros/cons will be listed in RFP.

Training Props ~ Forrest Chambers, HM02

Transporting training props in trailer would be much more convenient and easier on the body.

2011 TTAC/TAG Tentative Meeting Schedule ~ Jamie Kometz, OSFM

Beginning next year, both meetings will be held the same day because we cannot justify having meetings on two different days financially speaking. Proposed time would be from 10 am-3 pm.

The committee proposed the following 2011 TTAC/TAG meeting schedule:

January-Gresham

April-Hermiston

July-Gresham

October-Albany

Quarterly Teams Training Report Highlights

Scott Stanton ~ HM10: training is moved from Thursday mornings to Tuesday nights; the team will continue annual training with the bomb squad because the last training session was successful.

Reed Godfrey ~ HM13: the greatest disadvantage to the fire academy classes is that Salem has drained its outreach funding, which would be well spent on inviting local teams to training. Teams will training with bomb squad will be scheduled to meet sometime in September or October of this year.

Brian Fish ~ HM08: Brian's question for the group was "who can Medford work with at the local level or how can current relations improve?" One suggestion was Bowling, which meets OSHA guidelines and currently works with Gresham/Multnomah HM03. Next training date is August 11, 2010-Brian invited Klamath and Roseburg to attend and watch.

New Business

No new business.
