

WaterSMART Workshop Agenda

Monday, September 30, 2013; 1:30 – 4:30 pm
Oregon Water Resources Department
Rogue Conference Room, 3rd Floor
725 Summer Street NE, Salem, Oregon 97301

1:30 Welcome and Introductions

1:40 WaterSMART Refresher

A description of the Basin Study Framework and required study elements.

2:00 1. Introduction: Developing a Plan of Study (POS)

- Purpose – the Expected Outcomes
- Study Objectives
- Study Area

2:10 2. Study Description (POS continued)

- Project Background and Problems, Needs, Opportunities
- Previous Work and Available Data
 - Agricultural, Municipal, Industrial, and Minimum Perennial Streamflows
 - 2008 OWSCI Statewide Demand Assessment

2:45 – 3:00 Break

3:00 2. Study Description (continued)

- Current Activities
 - Review of Municipal Demands and Self-Supplied Industrial Demands
 - Willamette Water 2100 Project
 - BiOp Instream Flow Studies

3. Study Approach and Interested Parties

4. Study Management Requirements

3:30 5. Study Tasks

4:15 Closing Thoughts and Next Steps

4:30 Meeting Adjourn

Meeting Objectives: Determine if we can make a decision during workshop about re-applying for a full WaterSMART Basin Study in January 2014. Outline work to occur over the next several months.
