

Community Heat Pump Deployment Program

Resources for Applicants

This document includes a list of resources that may be helpful to applicants applying to ODOE's Community Heat Pump Deployment Program. These and other data sources may assist applicants in the application process, such as when describing the community they serve or represent.

Data About Communities

These resources may be useful when describing the Environmental justice communities within a region. These questions are typically found under the Community Description and Program Overview sections of the application.

EJ Screen: Environmental Justice Screening and Mapping tool from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

U.S. Census: United States Census Bureau data.

U.S. Department of Agriculture Economic Research Service: Rural Classifications.

Oregon Housing and Community Services Data: Includes poverty and demographic housing data.

Climate and Economic Justice Screening Tool: Mapping tool from the Council on Environmental Quality.

Energy Justice Dashboard and the Low-Income Energy Affordability Data Tool: Tools from U.S. Department of Energy showing among other characteristics, energy cost.

CDC Social Vulnerability Index: Index using U.S. Census data to determine social vulnerability.

Other

This resource may be useful when identifying utilities to consult or coordinate with.

Find Your Utility: Oregon Department of Energy.

