STUDENT AND HILLSBORO) Agency Case No. DP 20-115
SCHOOL DISTRICT 1J)

HISTORY OF THE CASE

On August 31, 2020, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) received a Request for Impartial Hearing purportedly filed on behalf of Parent and Student. The request was signed by Peter G. Albert of the Brain Injury Rights Group, Ltd., and by Patrick Donohue of the Patrick Donohue Law Firm. On September 8, 2020, Joel Hungerford, of the Hungerford Law Firm, LLP, filed a Motion for Order to Show Cause requesting that Parent demonstrate that Mr. Albert and/or Mr. Donohue are admitted to practice law in Oregon. Chief Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) John Mann issued a Ruling and Order Granting Motion to Show Cause on September 10, 2020.

ISSUES

Whether this case should be dismissed without prejudice.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On August 31, 2020, the OAH received a request for Impartial Hearing purportedly filed on behalf of Parent and Student. The request was signed by Peter G. Albert and Patrick Donohue.
2. On September 8, 2020, Joel Hungerford, of the Hungerford Law Firm, LLP filed a Motion for Show Cause on behalf of the Hillsboro School District. In the Motion, Mr. Hungerford asserted that neither Mr. Albert nor Mr. Donohue appeared to be licensed to practice law in Oregon. Mr. Hungerford asked that Parent be ordered to show cause that Mr. Albert and/or Mr. Donohue were licensed Oregon attorneys.
3. On September 9, 2020, Chief ALJ Mann searched the Oregon State Bar member directory website¹ and found that neither Mr. Albert nor Mr. Donohue were listed as licensed Oregon attorneys.
4. On September 10, 2020, Chief ALJ Mann issued a Ruling and Order Granting Motion to Show Cause ordering Parent to show cause that Mr. Albert and/or Mr. Donohue were licensed to practice law in Oregon and that the OAH should not dismiss their hearing request. Parent was ordered to file a response to the OAH no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Daylight Time, on September 16, 2020.

5. As of September 21, 2020, Parent had not filed the required response and had not provided any evidence to establish that either Mr. Albert or Mr. Donohue were licensed to practice law in Oregon.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This case should be dismissed without prejudice.

OPINION

This case is subject to the Oregon Department of Justice’s Model Rules for administrative hearings held before the OAH.² OAR 137-003-0550 provides, in relevant part:

(1) Natural persons who are parties in a contested case may represent themselves or may be represented by an attorney or other representative as authorized by federal or state law, including ORS 183.458.

* * * * *

(3) Unless otherwise provided by law, an out-of-state attorney may not represent a party to a contested case unless the out-of-state attorney is granted permission to appear in the matter pursuant to Oregon Uniform Trial Court Rule 3.170. Local counsel who obtained the order on behalf of the out-of-state attorney must participate meaningfully in the contested case in which the out-of-state attorney appears.

Nothing in Oregon law authorizes a party to a special education hearing in Oregon to be represented by individuals not licensed to practice law in Oregon. Furthermore, OAR 581-015-2345(1)(c) provides:

A party may not have a hearing until the party, or the attorney representing the party, files a due process hearing request that meets the requirements of subsection (1)(a)(B) or (1)(b)(B).

The Request for Impartial Hearing purportedly filed on behalf of Parent and Student was signed by two individuals who do not appear to be licensed to practice law in Oregon. Parent has not provided any evidence to establish that the individuals are authorized to practice law in Oregon. Therefore, the Request for Impartial Hearing did not comply with OAR 581-015-2345(1)(c). Parent is not entitled to a hearing until such time as Parent or a duly-licensed Oregon attorney files a due process hearing request that meets the requirements of Oregon law. This case thus must be dismissed without prejudice.

² OAR 581-015-2340(2) provides “The Department of Justice’s model rules for administrative hearings, OAR 137-003-0501 through 137-003-0700, apply to the extent consistent with federal law and these division 15 regulations.”

ORDER

Parent's Request for Impartial Hearing is dismissed without prejudice. Parent may refile a hearing request following this dismissal so long as the request is either filed directly by Parent or by a duly-licensed Oregon attorney.
