

Doctrine of Discovery: “The discovery doctrine or doctrine of discovery is a legal term. It means that if a country was not under the control of a king who was from Europe and Christian, then any European Christian country could take control of the land. The Doctrine of Discovery established a spiritual, political, and legal justification for colonization and seizure of land not inhabited by Christians.”

Colonization: “the action or process of settling among and establishing control over the indigenous people of an area”

---

Doctrine of Discovery: “The discovery doctrine or doctrine of discovery is a legal term. It means that if a country was not under the control of a king who was from Europe and Christian, then any European Christian country could take control of the land. The Doctrine of Discovery established a spiritual, political, and legal justification for colonization and seizure of land not inhabited by Christians.”

Colonization: “the action or process of settling among and establishing control over the indigenous people of an area”

---

Doctrine of Discovery: “The discovery doctrine or doctrine of discovery is a legal term. It means that if a country was not under the control of a king who was from Europe and Christian, then any European Christian country could take control of the land. The Doctrine of Discovery established a spiritual, political, and legal justification for colonization and seizure of land not inhabited by Christians.”

Colonization: “the action or process of settling among and establishing control over the indigenous people of an area”