

Young Adults in Transition Residential Treatment Home Application Form

Young Adults in Transition (YAT) Residential Treatment Homes (RTH) are for young adults (17.5 to 25 years old) who experience complex behavioral health challenges.

YAT RTHs provide 24-hour supervision and support focusing on helping residents develop the skills needed to manage their mental health symptoms and transition into adulthood.

Services and supports include, but are not limited to:

- Therapy and medication management
- Case Management to connect to additional services as needed (i.e. supported employment, etc.)
- Skill development focusing on:
  - Self-managing emotions and mental health symptoms
  - Nutrition, personal hygiene, clothing care and grooming
  - Managing physical or health problems as needed
  - Money and household management
- Communication skills for social, health care, community resources
- Recreational and social activities

Application Process:

Referral application form (please complete all pages) and supporting clinical documentation is sent to the following contacts (send to all contacts listed for the program) for each specific home the applicant has interest in:

I am applying for the opportunity to live in a Young Adult in Transition group home. I understand I will have to follow the rules of the home and actively work toward becoming an independent and productive adult in order to remain in the home if I am accepted. I authorize the agencies involved in this decision to contact my identified “support team” members for the purpose of getting their recommendations and to assist us in developing a care plan with me.
