

HST Director Education and Experience Requirements: OAR 333-024-0390

Applicants must meet both Education AND Experience in clinical laboratory testing to qualify
Education requirements - Please check the box where applicant is qualified:	Experience requirements – Please check the box where applicant has clinical laboratory experience*; list experience on the ‘Director Qualification Appraisal’ form
<input type="checkbox"/> Medical doctor (MD) or Doctor of Osteopathy (DO) licensed to practice in Oregon.	<input type="checkbox"/> MD, DO, ScD, DrPH, or PhD must have one or more years of pertinent clinical laboratory experience.
<input type="checkbox"/> Doctor of Science (ScD), Doctor of Public Health (DrPH) or Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree in chemistry, biochemistry, or other closely related science from an accredited institution.
<input type="checkbox"/> Earned Master of Science degree in medical technology, chemistry, biochemistry or other closely related science from an accredited institution.	<input type="checkbox"/> Master of Science degree must have two or more years of pertinent clinical laboratory experience.
<input type="checkbox"/> Performed the duties of a director of a health screen testing service for at least six site days during the twelve months prior to 1/1/90. Proof is required.	<input type="checkbox"/> Must have four or more years of pertinent clinical laboratory experience.
Complete the qualification process by providing the following:
<input type="checkbox"/> A copy of the applicable degree/diploma. *Clinical Lab Experience means examination and test performance on human specimens for purposes of obtaining information for the diagnosis, treatment, and monitoring of patients.	<input type="checkbox"/> List health screen testing of analytes (glucose, cholesterol, hemoglobin, hematocrit, etc.). Include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Experience in preventive maintenance of equipment ○ Quality control performed – number of controls run and how often ○ Action taken when reagents or strips expired ○ How you handled out of control results ○ How records were kept on patients & quality control results ○ How you detected shifts/trends in quality control ○ Your participation in collection of blood specimens <input type="checkbox"/> If you trained clients to use in-home glucose (or other) instruments, submit a copy of your training material. <input type="checkbox"/> Any additional items you feel would be helpful in qualifying you as an HST director.