YOUR REQUIRED COMPETENCIES (TO BE COMPLETED BY THE APPLICANT)

For each skill set within the competency category (A, B, C, D, E, etc.) you must have observed or applied the skill and thereby had the opportunity to gain or improve your personal skills and/or abilities. For example, you became aware of legal or regulatory requirements, professional standards or rules, or organizational policies applicable to your workplace; or you have participated in a program, project, or division or applied appropriate procedures, etc., in which specific competencies and abilities were demonstrated. You are expected to demonstrate the skills expected of a newly licensed CPA. Each box must be checked under all competencies and in so doing the applicant certifies that they have developed the competencies.

Competency A: Understanding the Code of Professional Conduct promulgated and adopted by the Board:

- (A.1) I understand and have internalized the concepts in the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (A.2) My supervising CPA has had opportunities to observe examples of my integrity, objectivity, independence, professional judgement, due professional care, and professional skepticism.

Competency B: Assessing the Achievements of a client's objectives:

- (B.1) I have developed the ability to understand various organizations and how they differ.
- (B.2) I understand how to recognize the objectives and goals of various organizations.
- (B.3) I have knowledge of how to develop performance measures and critical success factors and I have experience in analyzing such performance measures and critical success factors.
- (B.4) I understand how to recognize economic and regulatory trends and analyze how they affect the business environment of an entity.

Competency C: Preparing Working Papers and Documenting Conclusions:

- (C.1) I have gained experience in preparing working papers that include sufficient relevant data to support the analysis and conclusions required by the applicant's work.

Competency D: Understanding Transaction Streams and Assessing Risk:

- (D.1) I have gained an understanding of transaction streams and information systems, including the ability to understand how transactions aggregate at the organizational level, to infer how transactions impact the organization as a whole and to evaluate the integrity and reliability of various client information systems.
- (D.2) I can generally evaluate various computer risks associated with information systems and know when I need to consult with someone with greater expertise when evaluating specific computer risks and controls.

Competency E: Risk Assessment and Verification:

I have obtained skills in risk assessment and verification that allow me to:

- (E.1) assess the risk of misstatement in an information system; and
- (E.2) obtain sufficient relevant data based on the risk of misstatement and the nature of the engagement to determine the appropriateness of underlying data in terms of its completeness, existence and occurrence, valuation and allocation, rights and obligations, presentation, and disclosures.

Competency F: Decision Making, Problem Solving and Critical Thinking:

- (F.1) I have obtained skills in decision making, problem solving, critical analytical thinking including the ability to evaluate and interpret sufficient relevant data in a variety of engagements and settings.
- (F.2) I have been able to evaluate a client's cash flow, profitability, liquidity, solvency, operating cycle, the achievement of management's plans, and the accomplishment of service efforts and systems reliability.

Competency G: Documenting Findings and Conclusions:

- (G.1) I have developed the ability to document the scope of my work, findings, and conclusions.
- (G.2) I have developed the ability to research professional standards to determine the appropriateness of reports on financial statements, system reliability, or reports expressing scope of work, findings, and conclusions.

I have gained the competencies above while employed in public practice on the staff of a certified public accountant or a firm of certified public accountants, or equivalent employment subject to peer review requirements, or if such employment is with audit agencies, internal audit departments or other organizations where a peer review is conducted and the audit agency, internal audit department, or other organization is independent of the entity.

SUPERVISING CPA/PA CERTIFICATION SECTION

(If more than one CPA/PA is verifying the experience, please submit additional sheets.)

NOTICE FOR SUPERVISOR LICENSEE: Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) Chapter 673.040 and Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) 801-010-0065 and 801-010-0100 provide guidance specific to the experience requirements for applicants for the certificate of Certified Public Accountant and Public Accountant. Please refer to these documents as you are considering whether the applicant has achieved some or all the seven core competencies. By signing this form, you will be certifying to the Board that the applicant has obtained the experience requirements and that you have sufficient knowledge through supervision to certify the applicant's representations.
