

Oregon OSHA

Renée Stapleton
Administrator

Department of Consumer and Business Services

Oregon OSHA

Mission:

To advance and improve workplace safety and health for all workers in Oregon

Oregon OSHA

Oregon OSHA

Consultation Program:

- 33 Total Consultants / 5* field offices
 - 20 Safety Consultants
 - 13 Health Consultants
 - 2 are hybrid – Health and Ergonomic
- Provide free & confidential safety, health, and ergonomic assistance
 - Recommendations to control and eliminate hazards
 - Industrial hygiene services, such as noise monitoring and air sampling
- Training on health and safety topics
- Assistance with safety and health programs
- Voluntary Programs
 - VPP
 - SHARP
 - Challenge

Request a consultation:

Oregon OSHA

Enforcement Program:

- 85 Total Compliance Officers / 5* field offices
 - 56 Safety Compliance Officers
 - 29 Health Compliance Officers

Priority of Safety and Health Inspections:

- Imminent Danger
- Fatality, catastrophe, or accident
- Complaint
- Referral
- Programmed Inspections for Cause
- Programmed Inspections (scheduling lists)
- Follow-up

File a complaint:

Oregon OSHA

Public Education:

- Develops interactive multi-media content in English and Spanish
- Provides continuing education credits for CCB license holders
- Conducts virtual and in-person training classes across state
- Provides class completion certificates for attendees

Access public education resources, including registering for classes:

Oregon OSHA

Policy:

- Legislative Coordination
- Grant and Scholarship Programs
 - Oregon OSHA Training Grants
 - Worker Memorial Scholarship
- Appeals
 - Conduct informal conferences
 - Negotiate settlement agreements
 - Support Compliance Officers and management throughout life of appeal
- Resource Center
 - publication orders from the public, DVD lending, streaming video access, consensus standards, and journals
- Technical
 - Technical develops, interprets, and answers questions regarding rules
 - Provide expert testimony during hearings at the Workers Compensation Board
 - Publications and website

Oregon OSHA

Oregon OSHA

Email: renee.m.stapleton@dcbs.oregon.gov

503-947-7400