

Role of Respondents

- Respondents are expected to come to an assessment prepared to discuss the Individual's current, daily support needs for all life activities in the home, at work, and in the community
 - There is no need to bring case files or ISP documentation
 - Respondents may bring a few pages of notes
 - Avoid creating distractions, such as conducting business on the phone during the assessment, texting, etc.
 - Respondents must stay for the entire assessment(s)