Driver's License Reinstatement Program

Other Agency Accounts

The Oregon Department of Revenue is partnering with circuit courts to assist people in reinstating their suspended Oregon Driver's License through a payment plan.

You do not qualify for the License Reinstatement Program if you have:

- Judgments that stipulate sanctions on license reinstatement.
- An open bankruptcy.

1

Contact Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division (DMV) (503) 945-5000

The DMV will help you determine which courts have judgments/sanctions affecting your license.

3

Make a $200 down payment

We accept cash, credit or debit card (Visa, Discover, or MasterCard), money order, or cashier's check. This payment will go toward your delinquent debt.

4

Set up a monthly payment plan

Talk to one of our agents. Garnishment payments and refunds do not count as payments in the License Reinstatement Program. If you miss or are late with a payment, you may be removed from the program. There is no grace period.
