Sadie Carney, the staff liaison to the Citizen Involvement Advisory Committee (CIAC) will present the CIAC recommendation that Wendy Hudson be appointed to a four-year CIAC term in the At-Large seat that is currently vacant.

Ms. Hudson is a recent retiree employee of the Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board (OWEB) and Oregon's Defenders of Wildlife. After 13 years in state government she has relocated to Monmouth, Oregon where she volunteers her service as a City Planning Commissioner. Her interest in serving on the CIAC comes of a desire to educate citizens and increase understanding of land use at a city level.

In addition to her recent volunteer service, Wendy has extensive involvement with citizen advisory committees though her work with Defenders of Wildlife, she assisted with the Governor's Willamette River Basin Task Force, and likewise assisted in the development of the 2001 Willamette Restoration Strategy.

On behalf of the CIAC, I am pleased to recommend Wendy Hudson for appointment to a four-year term on the CIAC.
