ULTIMATE FINDING OF FACT

An unlicensed person, Respondent, performed the duties of a licensed funeral service practitioner by filing Certificates of Death, signing the name of Cox and Cox Funeral Chapel's manager, Cox-Tanner, or his funeral service practitioner number, on various client service records and making funeral arrangements with families.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Only a licensed funeral service practitioner shall submit the certificate of death to the Oregon Department of Human Services (Vital Records). Respondent, who is not licensed, violated a public health law, ORS 432.307(1) and (2), and therefore violated OAR 830-030-0090(1)(b) in 63 separate instances by submitting certificates of death to Vital Records.
2. A person may not use another's license or falsify clients' records by signing someone else's name. OAR 830-030-0090(2)(c)(C); OAR 830-030-0090(2)(b)(B). Respondent violated these laws when she signed 63 death certificates and 144 other client records using Cox-Tanner's name or license number.
3. Only a licensed funeral service practitioner shall coordinate and direct the various tasks associated with performing funeral services for at need persons, and supervise or otherwise control the transportation, care, preparation, processing and handling of the remains before the bodies undergo cremation, entombment or burial. OAR 830-030-0004(1) and ORS 692.025(1). Respondent violated these laws when she arranged funeral services for eight decedents.
4. Violation of ORS chapter 692 or any administrative rule adopted thereunder is cause for disciplinary action under ORS 692.180(1)(g), including imposition of a civil penalty up to $1,000 per violation.

ORDER

1. Respondent is ordered to pay civil penalties in the total amount of $6,500.00.
2. Payment is due within 10 days after the date this order becomes final by operation of law or on appeal. Failure to pay the civil penalties within the time prescribed is a violation of this Order, for which the Board may take additional disciplinary action, including license revocation.
3. This Final Order is effective when issued by the Board.
