Transfer Ownership – Deceased Owner

Survivorship means there is co-ownership of the vehicle (For example: If the title is in your name and another person's name, with survivorship, and the other person is now deceased, you have sole ownership of the vehicle and can apply for a new title using the Title Transfer With Survivorship instructions).

The process to transfer your title will depend on whether survivorship is listed on the title and whether the estate is probated or not. The Oregon title will show survivorship if it was requested, see the example below.

ATTENTION:

- It may take 12 weeks for you to receive a title and 9 weeks to receive plates or stickers.
- You should not be cited for expired plates or trip permits at this time.

You may apply for a trip permit online if you are unable to get the requirements below.

DMV cannot provide legal advice.

Instructions to Transfer Title for Your Situation:

Title Has Survivorship – An Owner Staying on Title or Title Transfer
Title Has Survivorship – All Owners Deceased
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate NOT probated
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate being probated
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate probated but now closed

If your title shows Y/N or Y/Y in this area, the title has survivorship.
If it shows N/N or N/Y, the title does not have survivorship between the registered owners.
