

Title and Register Your Brand New Vehicle

If you bought a new vehicle from an Oregon dealer, they may submit the title and registration paperwork for you, otherwise you must apply.

Title

Provide the following to DMV:

- A completed Application for Title and Registration;
 - You can save time by submitting this application online, if you plan to go to a DMV office within 30 days.
- The original Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin (MCO);
- The original odometer disclosure;
- Original releases or bills of sale from any previous owners;
- Original lien releases from any previous security interest holders;
- A Use Tax Certificate from the Oregon Department of Revenue if you bought the vehicle from an out-of-state dealer and your vehicle is subject to the tax; and
- The appropriate title fee.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV.

Registration (Plates)

Along with all of the requirements listed in the section above, you must also provide the following to DMV:

- Proof of compliance, or exemption from, the Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) requirement;
- Your plate choice; and
- The appropriate registration fee, based on your plate choice.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV.

Brand new passenger vehicles, light trailers, mopeds, and most motorcycles must get four-year registration, unless a plate is transferred onto the vehicle.

If you apply for registration, you are certifying:

- You currently have, and will maintain, motor vehicle insurance required by Oregon law for as long as you register the vehicle; and
- Your home is in Oregon or you are eligible, or required, to register under Oregon law.
