This vehicle must remain under government operation as long as the plates are on the vehicle. If the vehicle is sold to a new owner who does not qualify for a government registration or you use the vehicle for another purpose, you must remove the plate(s) from the vehicle. The plate(s) can be transferred to another vehicle that qualifies for government registration under ORS 805.040 or 805.200.

Vehicles using these plates must be owned and operated, or operated under a lease or lease agreement, by the State of Oregon, a county, city or political subdivision thereof, or one of Oregon's 12 federally recognized Indian tribes.

Federally recognized tribal governments should contact ODOT's Commerce and Compliance Division at 503-378-6656 for information regarding tax liability.
