

Community Advisory Committee (CAC) Membership Roster

Successful projects include and consider a variety of viewpoints from a wide range of stakeholders. This CAC includes members who represent a diverse group of interests. Members can represent multiple groups/interests as long as they are willing and able to share viewpoints from these groups during CAC meetings, even when they may conflict.

CAC Member	Interests represented
Elliot Akwai-Scott	Safe routes to schools, bicyclist
Brian Balla	Transit, Foster-Powell neighborhood
Kimberly Botter	Central Northeast Neighbors (CNN) Land Use and Transportation Committee, Madison South neighborhood, small business owner
Kathryn Doherty-Chapman	Oregon Walks, active transportation
Kevin Kaufman	Real estate, JOIN, Montavilla neighborhood
Rachel Kimbrow	North Clackamas School district ESL (English teacher), Bridger neighborhood
Pam Knuth	Large business, freight, real estate
Luci Longoria	Health policy, active transportation
Leticia Martinez	Non-profit, Latino, Small business owner, marginalized populations
John Mulvey	EPAP, ROSE community development, transit rider, cyclist
Terry Parker	Senior, auto/commuters, Rose City Park neighborhood
Cora Potter	Lents Neighborhood Association
Traci Price	APANO/Jade District, business owner, Montavilla neighborhood
Shayna Rehberg	City of Portland Bicycle Advisory Committee
Peter Schraner	Clackamas County business
Diane Sparks	Auto Dealers
Adam Stein	Small business owner, Montavilla East Tabor Business Association, economic development
Chabre Vickers	PCC, PAALF, Jade District
Brian Wong	82 nd Avenue Improvement Coalition, Montavilla neighborhood
Local Resident	Filipino, senior