2017 Statewide TIM Conference:

All TIM Responders are invited to attend!

In our Fall 2016 edition of the TIM Trend we shared an article highlighting the topics covered during Oregon's 2016 TIM peer exchange. One of the items was the need to ensure "executive level awareness, understanding and support of a state's TIM program," which emerged as a constant theme across all of the states we visited. Given its importance across state lines, executive level TIM support became a hot button topic for us as we considered future ways to employ our newfound knowledge from our TIM partners in states like Tennessee, Maryland and Virginia.

The article closed with a call to "keep a look out" for 2017 activities that would put into practice what we learned. True to our word, we are very happy to announce a new event for this year, the 2017 Oregon TIM Executive Workshop as well as the return of an old favorite, our Annual Statewide TIM Conference.

The 2017 conference topics and speakers have not yet been finalized. However, with our shortened timeline we expect a fast-paced, informative session that, similar to past years, includes practical TIM information pertinent to all TIM disciplines. For a preview of things to come, we can look back to last year when our guest speaker Dan Kontos, Chief Deputy and Undersheriff at the Portage County Sheriff's Office asked, "How do you want to remember your co-workers?"

Planning efforts have begun across the nation for a week devoted to advancing support for and understanding of the TIM program and safe, quick clearance practices. Oregon is participating in the national coordination calls and we are beginning to plan activities for our state. Our first task was to create a unique logo for us to market our National TIM Week activities – We have the logo, now we want YOUR ideas!
