Oregon law requires children to be secured in a rear-facing safety seat until their second birthday. This greatly improves their chance of surviving a crash.

Now it’s the law.
Get safety seat tips here.

OREGON.GOV/ODOT
Oregon law requires children to be secured in a rear-facing safety seat until their second birthday. This greatly improves their chance of surviving a crash.

Keep them safe.
Get safety seat tips here.

OREGON.GOV/ODOT