GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN ADDICTIONS COUNSELING

Certificate in Addictions Counseling

<http://www.pdx.edu/coun/addictions>

Seven sequential graduate-level courses, or 190 hours, designed for behavioral health, mental health, addictions treatment, and other human services professionals at both the graduate credit level with the Graduate Certificate in Addiction Counseling, and the noncredit level Certificate of Completion in Addiction Counseling. Either certificate will help to better serve clients as well as increase employment options: mental health professionals benefit from the additional training in addictions counseling to serve clients struggling with this issue, and addictions professionals increasingly need graduate-level studies to qualify for treatment positions or advance into program administration.

Certificate of Completion and Workshops

New News From OVC

OVC is Awarding Funding to Support Collective Healing in the Wake of Harm

The Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) is now accepting applications under the FY 2016 Vision 21: Law Enforcement and the Communities They Serve: Supporting Collective Healing in the Wake of Harm <http://ojp.gov/ovc/grants/pdf/txt/2016-Solicitation-Law-Enforcement-Communities-They-Serve-Supporting-Collective-Healing-508.pdf?ed2f26df2d9c416fbddddd2330a778c6=gpttztjpkp-qlkdelsq> solicitation.

OVC will make one award of up to $7 million to further the goals of Vision 21 by supporting law enforcement agencies, crime victims, and communities. The award will be used to develop, implement, and assess evidence-based and trauma-informed law enforcement response strategies, protocols, and interventions that promote community engagement and healing prior to and in the wake of law enforcement-involved shootings and other high-profile incidents of violence (including those featuring differences in race, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability or immigration status), whether the victim of the incident is a member of the community or an officer.

This project will provide comprehensive, expert technical assistance to law enforcement and the communities they serve to promote trauma-informed culture and practice to address the impact of trauma and community harm. Additionally, the project aims to help communities develop both a preventative and a remedial focus that will address the needs of those directly impacted by high-profile incidents, reduce tensions, maximize communication, and promote problem-solving between law enforcement and the communities they serve.

The grantee will in turn competitively select and fund at least six law enforcement demonstration sites, provide oversight and technical assistance to them, and provide rapid response to other communities that experience law-enforcement involved shootings, death, or other crisis incidents.

Applications must be submitted by September 7, 2016 through Grants.gov. Applicants are encouraged to begin the application process well in advance of the deadline. For technical assistance with submitting an application, contact the Grants.gov Customer Support Hotline at 800-518-4726 or 606-545-5035, or via e-mail to support@grants.gov. The Grants.gov Support Hotline hours of operation are 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except federal holidays.

For assistance with any other requirements of this solicitation, contact Lindsay Waldrop, Victim Justice Program Specialist, by telephone at 202-353-0486 or by email at Beatrice.L.Waldrop@usdoj.gov.
